

ROYAL NAVY RATINGS AND ROYAL MARINES COMMANDOS

RATES OF PAY FROM 1 APRIL 2012

The rates of pay shown in this leaflet are effective from 1 April 2012.

Pay and allowances are reviewed annually by the Armed Forces Pay Review body.

The point at which you enter this scale depends on the type of commission you are considering and, in some cases, on your professional or academic qualifications and past experience.

ROYAL NAVY	SALARY
On entry	£14,145
After 26 weeks' training or completion of phase 2 (whichever is sooner) increasing to Leading Rating	£17,515

You could go on to earn
Able Rating	£17,515 to £28,940
Leading Rating	£27,592 to £33,182
Petty Officer	£32,756 to £36,929
Chief Petty Officer / Warrant Officer 2	£33,223 to £43,252
Warrant Officer 1	£38,600 to £46,753

ROYAL MARINES
On entry	£14,145

You could go on to earn
Marine	£17,515 to £28,940
Corporal	£27,592 to £33,182
Sergeant	£32,756 to £36,929
Colour Sergeant / Warrant Officer 2	£33,223 to £43,252
Warrant Officer 1	£38,600 to £46,753

QUEEN ALEXANDRA'S ROYAL NAVAL NURSING SERVICE
Student nurses (weeks 1 to 26) and qualified nurses on joining	£15,233
Student nurses (after week 26)	£17,515
Qualified nurses (on completion of initial Professional courses THP and PBPQC)	£28,697 to £34,509

HOW YOU GET PAID

All Naval Service personnel are required to have a bank account. Your salary will be paid directly into your bank account at the end of each month and a pay slip issued to show details of your earnings and the deductions made for tax, National Insurance and other charges. In order to ensure that your first month's salary can be paid promptly, you are strongly advised to open a bank account prior to joining the Royal Navy or Royal Marines. In the event that this is not possible, guidance will be given to those who need to open an appropriate account after joining the Service.

For more information about careers in the Royal Navy and Royal Marines visit:

ROYALNAVY.MOD.UK/CAREERS 08456 07 55 55

ADDITIONAL FORMS OF PAY

Some types of work attract additional pay on top of the annual basic pay. The figures here are for guidance only.

Submariner pay:

Awarded to all qualifying Submariners. The initial rate is £12.12 up to a maximum of £21.22 a day. In addition, a £5000 'golden hello' is awarded on completion of training plus an extra £5.24 a day at sea.

Aircrew pay:

Ranges from £7.28 on qualifying up to a maximum of £19.98 a day.

Other:

Additional forms of pay are awarded to Divers, Hydrographers, Nurses and for a few other very specialist activities.

Longer separation allowance:

Once you have completed basic training, you will be eligible for a bonus of £6.69 a day, rising to £28.24 a day when serving away from your family or base unit.

Retention bonuses:

Several bonuses are available to various branches and specialisations for service over a certain period. For more details speak to your Careers Advisor.

ROYAL NAVY AND ROYAL MARINES COMMANDO OFFICERS

RATES OF PAY FROM 1 APRIL 2012

The rates of pay shown in this leaflet are effective from 1 April 2012.
Pay and allowances are reviewed annually by the Armed Forces Pay Review body.

The point at which you enter this scale depends on the type of commission you are considering and, in some cases, on your professional or academic qualifications and past experience.

BURSARIES

Defence Technical Undergraduate Scheme (DTUS)	£4000 a year
Other engineering bursars	£4000 a year
All other bursars	£1500 a year

NON GRADUATE ANNUAL BASIC PAY SALARY

Midshipman / 2nd Lieutenant	£16,073
On passing out of Britannia Royal Naval College / Commando Training Centre Royal Marines increasing to	£24,615

GRADUATE ANNUAL BASIC PAY

Sub Lieutenant / 2nd Lieutenant	£29,587 to £32,703
---------------------------------	--------------------

You could go on to earn

Lieutenant / Captain	£37,916 to £45,090
Lieutenant Commander / Major	£47,760 to £57,199
Commander / Lieutenant Colonel	£67,032 to £77,617
Captain / Colonel	£81,310 to £89,408

HOW YOU GET PAID

All Naval Service personnel are required to have a bank account. Your salary will be paid directly into your bank account at the end of each month and a pay slip issued to show details of your earnings and the deductions made for tax, National Insurance and other charges. In order to ensure that your first month's salary can be paid promptly, you are strongly advised to open a bank account prior to joining the Royal Navy or Royal Marines. In the event that this is not possible, guidance will be given to those who need to open an appropriate account after joining the Service.

ADDITIONAL FORMS OF PAY

Some types of work attract additional pay on top of the annual basic pay. The figures here are for guidance only.

Submariner pay:

Awarded to all qualifying Submariners. The initial rate is £12.12 up to a maximum of £21.22 a day. In addition, a £5000 'golden hello' is awarded on completion of training plus an extra £5.24 a day at sea.

Flying pay:

Awarded to Pilots and Observers on completion of professional training. Ranges from £13.93 on qualifying up to a maximum of £37.58 a day.

Other:

Additional forms of pay are awarded to Divers, Hydrographers, Nurses and for a few other very specialist activities.

Longer separation allowance:

Once you have completed basic training, you will be eligible for a bonus of £6.69 a day, rising to £28.24 a day when serving away from your family or base unit.

Retention bonuses:

Several bonuses are available to various branches and specialisations for service over a certain period. For more details speak to your Careers Advisor.

For more information about careers in the Royal Navy and Royal Marines visit:

ROYALNAVY.MOD.UK/CAREERS 08456 07 55 55